“The Asia-Pacific Entrepreneurial Company of the Year Award in the cybersecurity industry is awarded to Theos Cyber Solutions.

With its customer-centric corporate philosophy, Theos Cyber operates on the central tenet that its success depends on customer satisfaction. This philosophy permeates the company's daily practices. Among the highlights of Theos Cyber products are its widespread deployment of standard security architectures.

The company also assists customers in regulatory mapping requirements to internal security controls to help them meet regulatory requirements and enhance their internal security policies.
